

Proclamation

Be it known that

Whereas,

Despite advances in medical technology and research, men continue to live an average of five years less than women with African-American men having the lowest life expectancy; and

Whereas,

Men who are educated about the value of preventative health will be more likely to participate in health screening; and

Whereas,

Men's Health Network worked with Congress to develop National Men's Health Week as a special campaign to help educate men and their families about the importance of positive health attitudes and preventative health practices; and

Whereas,

Austin Men's Health Week will focus on a broad range of men's health issues, including heart disease, diabetes, mental health, prostate, testicular and colon cancer;

Now, Therefore,

I, Steve Adler, Mayor of the City of Austin, Texas, do hereby proclaim

June 12th - 18th, 2017

as

Austin Men's Health Week

in Austin.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Austin to be affixed this 12th Day of June in the Year Two Thousand Seventeen

Steve Adler, Mayor, City of Austin
